

St. Mary's Summer Reading Program

BOOK TITLE	AUTHOR	GRAD E LEVEL	ISBN
Mr. Popper's Penguins * One penguin named Captain Cook plus another penguin named Greta means a whole family of penguins for the kindly Mr. Popper.	Richard and Florence Atwater	3	9780316058438
Max Malone Makes a Million Max Malone, along with his best friend Gordy, is continually frustrated in his attempts to get rich, while his neighbor, little Austin Healy, makes money at every turn.	Charlotte Herman	3	9780805023282
A Cricket in Times Square* Talking animals star in this classic about a cricket, Chester, who plays glorious soothing music in the middle of the hustle and bustle of New York City.	George Sheldon	3	9780312380038
Because of Winn-Dixie * Ten-year-old Opal faces lots of new changes the summer she moves to a new town with her preacher father. But something wonderful happens when she walks to the nearby Winn-Dixie supermarket.	Kate DiCamillo	3	9780763644321

Total

* Denotes a Caldecott or Newbery Award Winner